Congratulations on registering your business with the State of Arizona. Your Articles of Formation have been filed with the Secretary of State of Arizona and are complete. You have one step left in order to attain your elective Arizona Certificate of Good Standing (also known as a Certificate of Standing). You will also receive a package containing corporate agreement templates for your business that can be used in a variety of situations for your company. Below is a form for your newly registered business and please confirm the accuracy of the information for your Arizona Certificate of Good Standing request with corporate template agreements.

An Arizona Certificate of Good Standing attests to the legal status of business entities such as corporations and limited liability companies operating in Arizona. These certificates are certified under the seal of the Arizona Corporation Commission and serve as legal documents. An Arizona Certificate of Good Standing may be required for loans, to renew business licenses, or for tax and other business purposes. It certifies that your Arizona business is in existence, is authorized to transact business in the state and complies with all state requirements.

Banks will often require a Certificate of Good Standing from a business both when opening bank accounts as well as when obtaining financing and the Certificate of Good Standing is also often required when doing business with other states. The Certificate of Good Standing bears the official seal of the Arizona Corporation Commission.
