10-701. Annual meeting A. A corporation shall hold a meeting of shareholders annually at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. B. Annual shareholders' meetings may be held in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, annual meetings shall be held at the corporation's known place of business. C. The failure to hold an annual meeting at the time stated in or fixed in accordance with a corporation's bylaws does not affect the validity of any corporate action. D. Any water users' association may provide in its articles of incorporation or bylaws for any method of electing its governing body or bodies on a biannual or more frequent basis, in which event the water users' association has no obligation to hold an annual meeting notwithstanding subsection A of this section and section 10-803. Whenever a meeting of shareholders is required or permitted under this chapter, a water users' association, without conducting such a meeting, may accomplish the purpose of such meeting through an election by its shareholders pursuant to its articles of incorporation. Every Arizona corporation should prepare minutes of all meetings of the shareholders and directors. The minutes should be approved by the appropriate parties, signed and added to the corporate minute book along with copies of the notices of the meetings sent to the shareholders and directors. Important corporate actions authorized by shareholders and directors without a meeting should be evidenced by resolutions signed by all the shareholders and directors, respectively, and added to the corporate minute book. 10-803. Number and election of directors A. A board of directors shall consist of one or more individuals, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or bylaws. B. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may establish a variable range for the size of the board of directors by fixing a minimum and maximum number of directors. If a variable range is established, the number of directors may be fixed or changed from time to time, within the minimum and maximum, by the shareholders or the board of directors. C. Directors shall be elected at the first annual shareholders' meeting and at each annual meeting thereafter unless their terms are staggered under section 10-806.
