Has your company added or removed any members since it was formed?      Yes                  No

If yes, the members need to amend the Operating Agreement so that the former members are removed and new members are added. The company may also need to amend its Articles of Organization if it added or removed any member that owned or owns 20% or more of the LLC. To amend your LLC's Operating Agreement and/or Articles of Organization, please complete the change member service agreement found at the link below and return it to us.
