

Post Mortem Wishes of Homer J. Simpson

This document expresses my wishes and beliefs with respect to my memorial or funeral arrangements. It provides guidance to my Trustee, family, and friends with respect to handling of my remains and my desires for remembrance, if any. It is my intent that my Trustee and loved ones follow the instructions contained in this letter. I recognize, however, that there are circumstances that I cannot anticipate that may require modifications to my plans. However, my hope is that my Trustee and loved ones will use their best abilities to carry out my instructions as closely as possible.

I am of sound mind and lawful age. I hereby revoke all prior Declarations, Wills, Codicils, Trusts, Powers of Appointment, and Powers of Attorney, but only insofar as they relate to the disposition of my last remains. I declare and direct that after my death the following actions be taken:

1. Conflicts with My Living Trust or Pour-Over Will

If any instruction contained in this letter is in conflict with any of provision of my Trust, if any, or Will, the provisions of my Trust or Will, as the case may be, shall control.

2. Notification of My Death

- ◆ Upon my death, please notify the following relatives, friends and organizations:

- ◆ Please notify the following newspapers, periodicals, newsletters, listservs or Internet groups of my passing through an obituary notice:
