

Personal Property Memorandum of Homer J. Simpson

On April 10, 2025 I, Homer J. Simpson, signed the Simpson Family Trust. The trust agreement refers to the disposition at my death of certain items of tangible personal property in accordance with a memorandum signed by me. I do hereby make this memorandum for that purpose.

If an item is marked with an (*) it is to be distributed to the person designated to receive the item only if my spouse predeceases me.

If the recipient of a particular item of personal property does not survive me, such item shall be disposed of as though it had not been listed in this memorandum.

Description of Tangible Personal Property	Person to Receive Property Address and Relationship	(*)

Do not use this document to give away any of the following types of property: real estate, motor vehicles money, evidences of indebtedness, documents of title, securities, checking or savings accounts, certificates of deposit, bonds, stocks, brokerage accounts, promissory notes or other investments. Use this document for household items and collectibles, including art, jewelry, books, collections, appliances and electronics, sports and hobby equipment, tools, computers and components, furniture and clothing.

Dated: _____

Homer J. Simpson

[illegible]

Dated:

Page

[illegible]

Dated:

Page

Personal Property Memorandum of Homer J. Simpson

Description of Tangible Personal Property	Person to Receive Property Address and Relationship	(*)

Do not use this document to give away any of the following types of property: real estate, motor vehicles money, evidences of indebtedness, documents of title, securities, checking or savings accounts, certificates of deposit, bonds, stocks, brokerage accounts, promissory notes or other investments. Use this document for household items and collectibles, including art, jewelry, books, collections, appliances and electronics, sports and hobby equipment, tools, computers and components, furniture and clothing.

Dated: _____

Homer J. Simpson

Page _____